

Reader's Response
Journal
Prompt
Cards

Pick a card.

In your Reader's Response Journal
write the title and author of the book.
Write your response to the question.

If time,
add an illustration.
Have fun!

Who is your favorite character in the story?
Tell why!

Did you learn any lessons from the story?
Tell about them.

Tell why this book should win an award!

Write the ten most interesting words from the book.

What is the setting of the story? Why is that important?

Is there anything you did not understand about the story?

Was the story fiction or nonfiction? How can you tell?

To whom would you recommend this book?
Why?

What was the main problem in the story?

Why do you think the author wrote this book?

Is this book like any other book you have read?

What was the best part of the story?

How did this book make you feel?

Do you have any questions about the book? If so, what?

Do you wish anything else would have happened?

What did you think of the illustrations?

Tell about the beginning of the story.

Tell about the middle of the story.

Tell about the end of the story.

Was there a funny part in the story?
Tell about it.

What would you have done differently in the story?

Would you like to visit the setting where this story took place?

How does the main character change in the story?

Write a different ending to the story!

Compare two of the characters from the story.

Are you like any of the characters? How?

Draw and label the characters. Circle the main character.

Write a different ending to the story!